STURDY MEMORIAL FOUNDATION ANNUAL MEETING HELD; YEAR END RESULTS REPORTED AND COMMUNITY LEADERS NAMED TO FOUNDATION

ATTLEBORO, MA, January 11, 2011 – Sturdy Memorial Foundation, Inc., the non-profit parent organization of Sturdy Memorial Hospital, held its annual meeting last evening at Highland Country Club in Attleboro. The agenda included the recognition of outgoing Board member Richard Crawford, who has served the Board in a number of capacities since 1997, including most recently as Treasurer. In other business, Patricia Cochrane, of Attleboro, was elected Associate Member of the Board of Directors and Treasurer of the Foundation. In addition, four members of the community were elected to the Foundation.

Members and guests attending the meeting were told that the Hospital had maintained its positive financial status for the 25th consecutive year. The Hospital's bottom line from current year operations was $11,059,574. Operating expenses for the year totaled $147 million, which included $6.5 million in uncompensated care for services provided to those who could not or would not pay.

In her annual report, Sturdy Memorial Hospital President and Chief Executive Officer Linda Shyavitz highlighted several of the Hospital's accomplishments in Fiscal Year 2010 and thanked the organization's staff and supporters for their contributions to the fiscal year's success.
